History of the Bureau County Courthouse

By an act of Congress on February 3, 1809, Illinois Territory was created and set apart from Indiana. By 1818, when Illinois Territory was admitted to the Union of States, it had been divided into fifteen counties. One of the fifteen was huge Putnam County that extended to, and encompasses, Chicago.

On February 28, 1837, the General Assembly at Vandalia acted to form Bureau County from Putnam County. Bureau County's name comes from Pierre Buero, a French trader with the Indians. In May of 1837, Princeton was declared the county seat of the new Bureau County. The first meeting of the County Commissioners Court convened in Princeton on June 7, 1837. As a result of their actions, early courts were held in Hampshire Colony Church, near the southeast corner of the courthouse square, until a suitable public building was provided. When summer temperatures were more comfortable outside the building, jurors sat on a log in the open air to consider their verdicts.

The first courthouse was a wooden frame building erected on the west division of the present Courthouse Square. This original building was also used as a meeting place.

By 1845, concern for the security of county records brought about a replacement of the original building and erection of a brick courthouse on the west part of the courthouse square at a cost of $9,000.00. In 1860, a wing was added to the east side of the courthouse at a cost of $18,688.00.

In December 1935, bonds were issued by the county to assist in adding to and remodeling the existing courthouse. It was built during the Depression as a Public Works Administration (PWA) project. The federal government provided money and materials, and the towns in the county provided the labor. To qualify for federal aid, the courthouse had to be remodeled, not rebuilt. To get around the rules, a new courthouse was built around the existing vault. Everything was torn down except the vault, which enabled county officials to claim they were not rebuilding, but remodeling at a cost of $225,000. The present courthouse was completed in 1937, the 100th anniversary of Bureau County's existence.

ILLINOIS COURTS

In 1964, the Illinois Constitution was amended by the voters to consolidate the court system in the state. As a result of the consolidation, there are three levels of courts: Supreme Court, Appellate Court, and Circuit Court.

The Supreme Court is the highest tribunal in the State of Illinois. It has seven justices who are elected from the respective judicial districts for a term of ten years. The Supreme Court has general administration and supervisory authority over all the courts in the State of Illinois.

The Appellate Court hears appeals from the Circuit Court. There are five Appellate Court districts in Illinois. Cook County comprises the first district. The remaining 101 counties in the state are divided into four districts. Bureau County is in the 3rd District, and the Appellate Court is located in Ottawa, Illinois. Judges of the Appellate Courts are elected from their respective districts for a term of ten years.

The Unified Trial Court is the Circuit Court. Circuit judges are elected from their respective circuits for a term of six years. Associate judges serve in the circuit and are appointed by the circuit judges for a term of four years.

One circuit judge is elected chief judge by vote of all the circuit judges to serve at their pleasure. The chief judge has general administrative authority in the circuit, subject to the overall authority of the Supreme Court.

Circuit judges may hear any type of case assigned to them. Associate judges may hear any matter assigned to them, except the trial of a criminal case in which the defendant is charged with an offense punishable by imprisonment for more than one year. Associate judges may be given special permission from the Supreme Court to hear these cases.

The circuit court clerk is the keeper of the records and files of the Circuit Court and is elected by the voters of Bureau County for a term of four years.

DuPage, Cook and Will Counties are single circuit counties which means that the boundaries of the circuit are the same at the county. Bureau County is in the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit, along with LaSalle County and Grundy County. The remaining counties are divided into the remaining judicial circuits.

The schedule of fees, together with all the other information concerning the filing of cases in Bureau County has been compiled for your convenience by my office.

GENERAL INFORMATION

1. This schedule of fees is designed primarily to provide an outline of the fees that are required in civil and criminal cases. The fees are established by the Illinois General Assembly and the Bureau County Board. The Circuit Court Clerk is mandated to collect them. The fees of the Bureau County Circuit Court Clerk are set forth in 705 ILCS 105/27.1 and applicable Bureau County Board resolutions.
2. In 1976 the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit Court adopted the Illinois Supreme Court uniform record keeping system. All cases filed in the Circuit are prefixed with a letter combination which is located after the year of filing and before the case number.
3. Fees are payable in advance in civil cases and are assessed upon conviction or a grant of supervision in criminal, traffic, conservation and ordinance cases. Civil cases are filed ONLY if the proper fees are remitted at the time of filing.
4. The filing of cases by mail is permitted as long as the necessary documents are transmitted to the Circuit Clerk along with the proper fees. The Circuit Court Clerk's office does not return copies of documents that are filed by mail, unless a stamped, self-addresses envelope is enclosed for that purpose. The Circuit Court Clerk's office will NOT accept mail with postage due.
5. The Circuit Court Clerk or Deputy Clerk does not prepare documents which are to be filed or recorded in the court in which he or she is clerk or deputy clerk, except such documents as such clerks are by law required to prepare. (705 ILCS 110/1.)
6. All records except those impounded by statute or order of the court are open to the public during business hours. All information from the court is available through personal search.
7. Except as otherwise provided in Supreme Court rules, all papers filed in all courts in Illinois shall be 8-1/2 inches by 11 inches. The court encourages use of recycled paper (S.Ct.Rule 10)
8. The Judicial Information Management System provides access to the court computer's main system. This system offers the ability to look up dates, defendants, record sheets, and dispositions. To access the system, go to the Circuit Court Clerk's website, www.bccircclk.gov, and click on "Record Search". The Circuit Court Clerk's computerization started in August 1988. Any cases filed prior to the aforementioned date may have to be looked up manually in the index of books kept within the Circuit Court Clerk's Office.
